

project:horse barn

SHADWELL FARM, LEXINGTON, KY.

ROOFING INSTALLER: Isaacs Specialty Roof Systems

PRODUCT: Sheffield Metals 1-inch Snap-Lock Panels (250,000 square feet)

FINISH: Kynar 500 Burnished Slate

MATERIAL: 24-gauge Galvalume

Located in the heart of the Bluegrass Region, Shadwell Farm is known for housing and breeding some of the world's top broodmares. Protecting these million-dollar thoroughbreds is essential to the farm's success as is presenting a world-class appearance for potential visiting clients. The five-year project included the removal of existing wood shake roofing and installing new plywood sheathing, and the onsite fabrication of the metal roofing system.

For more information on products from Sheffield Metals, see page 46

